Headline:
Rain giving way to sunshine and showers.

Today:
A cloudy start with outbreaks of rain slowly clearing away to the east. The following dry and bright interlude is interrupted as showers, heavy at times, also move eastwards across the region during the afternoon. Mild, but breezy. Maximum temperature 12 deg C (54 deg F).

Tonight:
For most, a dry evening with clear spells as any showers quickly fade away. A moderate breeze, strengthening as a band of occasionally heavy rain spreads across the region later. Minimum temperature 7 deg C (45 deg F).

Wednesday:
A cloudy day with outbreaks of rain, heaviest near coasts and over hills going into the afternoon. Strengthening winds with risk of coastal gales. Mild. Maximum temperature 11 deg C (52 deg F).

Outlook for Thursday to Saturday:
Early rain on Thursday clears to give way to sunshine and showers and blustery winds. Coastal gales developing Friday with further rain at times. Outbreaks of rain continuing on Saturday.
